MISSIONARY UPDATE

→Sam & Jenny Hanson ACI International

Hello ACC Friends,

We had a great month leading up to Christmas. On December 19th, we added a new member to our family: Joshua Gregory Hanson. He is a healthy, smiley baby and we are so thankful to God for him. Our prayer is that he can follow in the footsteps of Joshua of the Bible—loving God and desiring to be close to him, and a leader guiding others into God's blessings.

Our church hosted several evangelistic events during the month of December: Mother/Daughter Christmas dinner, youth Christmas parties, and our annual Christmas pageant and potluck. We had our largest attendance so far for the Mother/Daughter event: 35 attended and about 12 of those were new to the church. The church members did an excellent job of helping prepare for the events and inviting friends and neighbors to come. We look forward to seeing how God works in these people's lives and draws them closer to Himself.

We are excited about the new year and the ministries that God has laid on our hearts to carry out this year. We have a handful of people that we have been training to study and teach the Bible, as well as how to lead cell groups. We are planning to launch a second cell group in the next few months, led and run by members of the church and hopefully we will launch a third group a few months later.

Sam will also be offering an evening Seminary class, "The World of the New Testament," starting in February. He looks forward to helping people understand the culture and context in which the NT was written so that they can understand the Bible better and be able to communicate its truths with a better understanding of its application then and now. You can pray that he can have a good group of students, both college-aged and older adults from several different churches. We are also looking at opening up the library in the next month or so. Sam will be going to Mexico City in the next few weeks to purchase books with the money that has been given by several individuals and churches. We are excited to be able to offer this resource to help pastors and lay people in the city better serve God and teach the Bible.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support making our ministries here possible.

*Sam, Jenny,
David, James & Joshua*
