MISSIONARY UPDATE

→Daniel & Beth Taggart

Flagstaff Mission to the Navajo

Dear Alderwood,

We are so thankful for your prayers and support especially regarding recent events for our family. We continue to press on in the work God has set before us. Dan is traveling and will be doing more for the mission and recruitment. We need new missionaries to come alongside and who are willing to serve with us to reach Native Americans for Christ. We need those who God calls to go and live among the Natives and be a part of their lives. Long-term would be ideal, as the Navajos will wait and see if one will really stick it out. Of course we can always use groups for short-terms. also for VBS, to make gift bags in the storehouse, and work groups are always needed.

Dan also continues to be busy with the everyday things in the office. The training of church leaders will be continuing very soon with three new classes. He also goes out and visits our churches and preaches as needed. Issues always arise when working with people, but God is bigger and for this we are thankful. We love seeing how He works and the outcome among the Diné (the Navajo people). Even though it's getting harder to get Navajo Bibles and song books, we are thankful for the continued requests for them.

Danielle continues to keep us very busy. Recently she turned eight. How did that happen? School, piano, gymnastics (one more meet this season), and a very social life keeps us hopping. Today was crazy hair day so we did hair "cupcakes"!

Dan has some upcoming continuing education classes regarding water in Arizona. Please pray with us that Glen from Gray Mountain Bible Church will pass the water tests and be a help with the well water there. FMN Board meetings are also coming up. Please pray for wisdom as God leads the mission. Prayers for Beth as she continues driving an eight and 81-year-old to all the locations they need to be ☺. We are thankful spring is on the way and maybe no more snow. The tulips are coming up!

Thank you so very much for your prayers and partnership with us! As always, you are all welcome to stop by on your travels and/or help out for a day or two in the storehouse or otherwise.

Love the Taggarts,
Daniel, Beth, and
Danielle
