MISSIONARY UPDATE

→D.C. aka "Lydia"
ACTION International, Asia

Dear Family,
 I am grateful to God, as just last week, I was granted another year extension on my visa, just three days before it expired! These days, being permitted to stay is something I don't take for granted. The process is becoming more difficult. "Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the LORD's purpose that prevails." Proverbs 19:21. Every day as I go out into the streets and ride the local train to work, I can see 1,000 ministries that need to be done. Everywhere you look, people are mentally and spiritually broken. Only God can use us to help. We need to take the gifts and skills that God has given us and sometimes refine them. When I felt a nudge about working on my masters in psychology, I first hesitated because I knew what would be involved. I prayed for weeks, stepped out in faith, and told God to close the door at any time. Once again, God blew open the doors by allowing me to be accepted in a program with limited seats, cover my first year's tuition, and allow me to do my practicum and internship in the country I live. I would not have moved forward unless those needs were met. I am excited to see what God will do next!
 VBS began this week here at the center in the red-light district. For two weeks we have 34 children crunched in a small room, but the children seem to be enjoying the stories and activities. Pray that God will work in their hearts as we discuss Psalm 139 and other parts of the Bible about being created, be chosen, being in Christ, and being called.

Because of your prayers and financial support, you make a difference in many lives here!
 *Ab, my oldest son, came from the jungles with his illiterate mother and no father. He had never been to school. In May, he graduated high school, excelled in sports, led worship for his school and church, and is 18, living with us now for a year or two while he looks for a job. He is helping with VBS too!
 After VBS, we like to take our group of children from the red-light district to a water park. There was no funding this year, but because of you, in just two weeks, $750 of the $1,000 needed was given!
 Prayer makes a difference, and we are grateful for yours!
 With love and appreciation,
 "Lydia"
