MISSIONARY UPDATE

→Ken & Lois Gaydos

International Chaplains Ministry

During a long and emotionally painful search and recovery effort for an underwater diver who had drowned off Edmonds' Bracketts Landing Beach in 1985, there was no private place (amidst crowds of onlookers and media) for a grieving wife and children to gather. Shortly after that tragic event, Ken Gaydos, Edmonds Police and Fire Department volunteer Chaplain, shared his vision to friends and chaplain colleagues to have a special customized vehicle that could privately support grieving families on-scene, as well as provide needed snacks and beverages for emergency service personnel for future tragic events.

Now, thirty-one years later, this "first of its kind in the nation" vehicle, Support 7 (and it's gifted team of volunteers, several from here at ACC) remains a highly valued ministry serving our local first responders and assisting volunteer chaplains to care for the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of those who experience sudden events of trauma and crisis.

In recent days, volunteer Support 7 Officers have been at a wide variety of heavy events, including major commercial and residential fires, search and rescue operations, events of suicide and crime scene investigations, police SWAT deployments, accidental rail and aircraft incidents, in addition to fatality crashes on highways.

The ministry of Support 7 (under the auspices of ICM) receives no public funds, nor does it ever charge for its services. Support 7 is solely supported by missions and dear friends such as those here at ACC, like the ladies of WMF (Women's Missionary Fellowship) who specifically assist with fuel supplies, along with other community partners such as Westgate QFC, Lynnwood Business Costco, Edmonds Starbucks, and Pepsi Bottling.

Note to Friends at Alderwood:

We are currently recruiting volunteer Support 7 Officers for service beginning in the Fall. If you would like to have more information and/or be considered for this ministry, please email your expressed interest to intlchapmn@aol.com this week, and be sure and include your name and phone contacts. With Deepest Appreciation,
Ken & Lois
