Follow Me Into a Life of Worship
Luke 5:27-32 and 18:18-25
(Page 1020/1039 or 1032/1051 in chair Bible)

Big Idea: Jesus leads us into a life of worship

A life of worship is a life that	_ Jesus above everything and everything to him.

Story #1: Levi the Tax Collector (Luke 5:27-32)

Levi h	as

Levis has _____

Levi has ______

Story #2: The Ruler (Luke 18:18-25)

The ruler has _____

The ruler has _____

The ruler has _____

The ruler saw worship in terms of what he _____, but Jesus sees worship in terms of what he _____.

When it comes to submission, many of us don't struggle with _____, we struggle with _____.

God won't do something great _____ us until he has done something great _____ us.

Sermon Questions:

1. Read Luke 5:27-32 and 18:18-25. Both of these men had good things going for them, but responded to Jesus very differently. Can you relate to either of them? In what ways?

2. The tax-collector walked away from his security, money, and status. What about Jesus moves you to put Him above the things you value most?

3. Read Romans 12:1. How would you define worship from this verse? What is the motivation for worshiping God as Paul describes?

What might look differently in your life if you saw all your relationships and activities as opportunities to live out your worship of Jesus?

4. What role does personal Bible reading and prayer play in a life of worship?

Do you think anything needs to change in your personal Bible reading and prayer so that it is more worshipful? If so, what?
