MISSIONARY UPDATE

→Wilson & Cora Ladrangan Aeta Children's Home, Philippines

Dear faithful partners in the ministry, It was indeed a spirit-filled 30th anniversary that our Lord gave us last Sunday, July 15th. Here are some highlights and miracles that happened: The rain stopped! It was a miracle, a wonderful answer to prayer. The whole night before, it was raining very hard. The weather forecast said that it would rain heavily the next day. But when morning came, the rain stopped. It did not rain until the anniversary was finished. It was a miracle! Glory to God! (As I am typing this email, it is still raining hard here. Please pray for God's protection upon us.) We had two speakers...one in the morning worship, and another one in the afternoon. The Lord used them mightily. Many people, including ourselves, were in tears as the Lord touched and spoke into our hearts. We were not only strengthened and encouraged, but were challenged to live worthy of our God (the theme of the anniversary was "Living Worthy of Our God" and our text was 2 Thessalonians 2:12).

The Lord did not only feed us spiritually, He also fed us physically. There was about a thousand people who attended the anniversary. We prayed that our Lord would multiply the food. Praise God that everybody ate and went home satisfied. Another miracle. Praise the Lord!

Installation of the new ministry leaders. Cora and I were appointed by the board as the ambassadors of the ministry. Our main task is to represent and advocate the ministry wherever the Lord will lead us. Another role that we will play is to be a channel of love and encouragement to God's people who are wounded in the spiritual battlefield, those who are in pain, suffering, and undergoing severe testing of their faith. We will share with you more about this ministry later. Please pray with us in this new mission that our Lord has given us.

The miracle of healing that God has given to Cora... our Lord anointed her to stand up and encourage God's people last Sunday through her wonderful testimony of God's mercy and faithfulness in her life. Many were in tears praising God!

Thank you very much for all your faithful prayers and support. Through you, our Lord has greatly blessed us and encouraged us. Please continue to pray for us as we also pray for you.

Anticipating Jesus' imminent return,
Wilson & Cora
