MISSIONARY UPDATE

CORY & KRISTINE CRAMER
THRIVE INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

To our Dear Alderwood Family, I hope you are encouraged in your faith and walking in it daily! Our family is approaching our seventh anniversary of serving in Albania, and I cannot believe it. Seven years of God being faithful to us as we trust in Him. Thank you for seven years of serving and partnering in this ministry with us.

This last weekend we celebrated Easter as a church, which is an age old debate between Orthodox and Catholic calendars. I had the privilege to preach our Easter service and we had a full congregation with many standing. I have been preaching in Albanian for few years but recently started preaching from the heart as opposed to having a transcript in front of me. Despite more mistakes in language, I think my passion makes up for it. I love watching our church grow in their love for learning from the Bible. But as we remembered as a church the resurrection, there were many who were learning about Jesus' resurrection for the first time - which still blows me away!

This last January, our church began a small 10-month Bible school. Its a big survey of the Bible and Theology aimed at those already serving. We just finished our first semester and it has been a huge blessing. I am watching our 10 students pour their time and energy into understanding the Word of God. This is a huge need in our church as we are praying for God to raise up Elders and leaders for the future.

Our family is gearing up for a busy summer. With four kids and teams and camps this summer, it's gonna be full and we are thankful for what's to come. After a year of canceled plans, we are thankful for all the efforts to send people to serve with us. I am thankful that Alderwood has pursued every way to continue to help the ministry here grow, and even though a team didn't work out this time, let's plan on next year! We are so blessed by you and pray you are blessed to witness God working in powerful ways in places far away!

God bless!
