MISSIONARY UPDATE

MATT & SARAH PETERSON
WORLD LINK MINISTRIES

Greetings Dear Alderwood Family! We welcomed Seth Matthew to the Peterson family at the end of April... I'm not sure I've ever seen JoJo so excited. The first comment from Robyn about Seth was "He looks kind of old."

I want to ask for your prayers for our pastors in India. Times are especially tough for all of them with the ongoing COVID situation. To help meet urgent needs, we have stepped in once again and offered relief support for the pastors to provide for their communities. As I speak and interact with the pastors in my classes, I can see the growth that is arising in the midst of these trials. Praise the Lord!

It has been a joy to step in and teach pastors in Sierra Leone! These pastors are hungry for training! In working our way through the book of Exodus, I brought up the "hardening" of Pharaoh's heart and pointed out that it wasn't God taking Pharaoh's free-will, but, through His actions, literally "strengthening the resolve" of Pharaoh's self-determined stance. This caused one of the pastors to bring up that they actively pray for the destruction of those who practice evil among them, namely witch-doctors. So, I dove into how we should never make a request to God for the person's destruction, but for the destruction of evil and the salvation of the person. We also talked about God's missionary work to the wicked people of Nineveh and how God knows a heart that is willing to repent verses one that would not. The pastors were thankful for the discussion, and one pastor mentioned how they are starting to see how they should look at what the Bible says about these things because they have been taught so many things from so many others. Amen! Let us always see what the Lord has to say in His Scripture! Yet another example of how pastor training is so critical!

There are many other ministry fronts advancing that I will be excited to tell you about soon! Please continue to pray for God's guidance and clarity as we follow Him forward! Thank you all for your love and support! I am so excited that we get to be on this incredible journey of serving the Lord together!
