MISSIONARY UPDATE

JOSIAH GLESENER
CRU AT UC SAN DIEGO

Three years of college ministry with Cru in San Diego has officially come to a close. My last day with Cru was July 31. As I said final goodbyes I was especially encouraged by Jose and Cody, two former students I mentored who have become my close friends.

During our final meeting they both shared through tears how thankful they were to God for me just being there for big moments in their life from Cody getting saved freshman year to Jose proposing and getting married to his wife Ashley. And now both have decided to serve with Cru next year to continue the ministry in San Diego! By God's grace, in my final month with Cru I also got the opportunity to lead Jake, a student from San Diego State, to Christ! We walked through several passages in Romans and then he prayed with me essentially saying "God I'm done with fake religion, I just want to know you." I could see understanding dawning on him after we prayed. He committed his life to Christ! Now he'll be going through the book of John. Praise God!!!

Thank you so much for your faithful support Alderwood. You've enabled me to spend precious time with these students and experience spiritual fruit.

What's next? Since December of 2018, God has placed in me a heart to do pioneer church-planting amongst the unreached and unengaged in the 10/40 window. Up to this point, I have been preparing for this through Cru ministry experience and taking theology and business classes.

Now, on August 21, I will be embarking to Mexico on the next leg of the journey, Radius International, and I cannot wait for it to start!! Radius International is a year-long intensive missionary training program that prepares its 70 students for long-term church-planting to some of the hardest places to reach like Kazakhstan, Sudan, Indonesia, and China. I am praying about going to Indonesia longterm, but I will have more of a clear idea of location and mission agency July 2022 after Radius. Pray for wisdom with these big decisions looming!

Ever in prayer,

Josiah
