MISSIONARY UPDATE

CORY & KRISTINE CRAMER
THRIVE INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

To our Dear Alderwood Family,
As you gather today we pray you worship in spirit and truth. God is so good. Our mission in Albania is to strengthen and deepen the Church of Pogradec. Day to day ministry is challenging but when we think about the last year and 10 years, we cannot believe what the Lord has done.

How has the Lord strengthened and deepened this congregation? His Word. We as a church are preaching and studying through the book of Matthew, every word, and every verse. For the last few months, we have been in the Sermon on the Mount, which is truly transformational in our people's lives. Jesus' words are counter cultural in extreme ways for these Albanians, yet we are witnessing them accept, believe, and live out the way of Jesus.

The Lord has also slowly been bringing more men into the body of our church. Some are saved but most are not, but they keep coming. Albanian men are the most difficult to reach here. They are skeptical, apathetic, and uninterested in Jesus. However, in the last few months, men are visiting church and continuing to return. If you are going to pray for our ministry in Albania today, pray for these men to believe Christ and to grow deep in their faith.

If you remember little Liv, we are still in the process of adoption. It is a long process. Pray for every part of this journey, and our hearts as we care for this sweet girl.

We thank you for your prayers and support. We could not be here without you, and this church would not exist without you. We need your prayers today. Pray for these men and for our endurance and dependence upon the Lord.

In Him,

Cory, Kristine, Shiloh, Taliah, Jude, Finn & Liv
