MISSIONARY UPDATE

DAN & TOSHIKO LOCKWOOD
INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS, INC.

Thank you for your partnership with us in serving and introducing international students and scholars to Jesus at the University of Oregon! Your gifts enable us to show hospitality, serve felt needs and represent Christ to students; your prayers grant us favor and open hearts. Happy belated Easter!* We just came through a spiritually significant season for Christians, Muslims and Jews, as Easter, Ramadan and Passover practically overlapped each other. While most Jewish UO students are Americans, UO's Muslims are mostly international students. So, together with InterVarsity and University Fellowship Church, we facilitated three "peace feasts," including a visit to the Eugene mosque, to build bridges of friendship and discuss beliefs and culture. Please pray for these efforts, and especially for one Eugene convert to Islam who claims to be an ex-Christian pastor. 😊

Wildlife Safari. We took a mostly-African group to see animals from Africa and around the world. We are blessed by the confidence and boldness of our African Christian student friends. We also enjoyed shopping and tulips with Chinese and Pakistani friends in Woodburn, Oregon.

Malaya's going to be a DUCK! Our second daughter Malaya, 18, has decided to attend the University of Oregon, tentatively majoring in human physiology. We're so proud of her!

Next month our family will visit Singapore for ISI staff conference, then Japan for family and former students. (Elayna will stay in Eugene for work.) Toshiko's mother had a "heart event" last year, at age 84, and we haven't been all-together with her in six years. We are thankful she's well, and we look forward to a precious time together. Please pray for her salvation, and for former students who still don't know the Lord. Pray that we can make good (re)connections.

*At Easter, the stone was rolled away not so Jesus could get out, but so, I'm persuaded, we could see in: 'He is not (among the dead) but risen! just as he said'. May we know him and grow more and more in his resurrection power!
