MISSIONARY UPDATE

MALLORY KELLUM

BRIDGES INTERNATIONAL, CRU

Dear Alderwood,
My name is Mallory Kellum and I've just recently been added to ACC's supported missionaries! Many of you know me as Rick & Lisa Kellum's daughter, but let me tell you what led me to follow God's call to minister to students in France.

Growing up in a missionary family definitely played a part in cultivating a love for the nations, and as the years progressed, I've noticed a continued desire to share the hope of the gospel to those who are lost. Who knew that it would lead me back to France! How sweet it is that from the beginning, God has been preparing my heart for himself, gifting and equipping me to return to the place of my birth.

It's been about two months since my arrival in Rennes and I feel like my rhythm of life has become more digestible. Integrating into a team of staff members who I knew growing up, but with whom I am now linking arms to make Christ's name known has been a true blessing. They have been a source of encouragement, challenge and comfort and I'm excited to get to work by their side. So far, I've been learning the ropes of sharing my faith and initiating spiritual conversations on campus, cultivating relationships with christian students and implementing myself in a wonderful local church! It's been a gift to be surrounded by such a great community of believers and be fortified to go out and be Christ's light. Thank you for your continued support and investment in what the Lord is doing in France! Before I sign off, here are a couple of prayer requests to keep close to you as you think of me:

- That my heart would be completely available to the Lord
- That our team would be united in the Spirit (Romans 8)
- That we would encounter people of peace on campus and throughout our weekly routines
- A recognized need for Jesus in my heart as well as students we encounter on campus
- That God would build up forces of Christian students on campus

In Christ,

Mallory
