MISSIONARY UPDATE

JESSE & HANNAH VAN GORKOM
ENGINEERING MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL

Greetings from the VG-5! Our newly expanded family is currently in Michigan, visiting family and friends as we pack for our re-launch to Uganda. We received the all-clear we were waiting for and, Lord willing, we fly on November 18!

Now to packing... How would you pack for two years? With three kids? It is quite the challenge to anticipate what our kids will wear in the next weeks, let alone months and years. We are also trying to pack schoolbooks, toys, and a few workshop tools among many other things. Needless to say, packing up two years of life and trying to guess what the next two years will hold is not easy. We would greatly appreciate your prayers as we get closer to this big transition!

God has provided several big answers to prayer I wanted to share. Our baby, Kiira, is healthy and growing like a bean. We've received the medical all-clear to return to Uganda! God has provided a great apartment for us to move into, close to our old neighborhood, church, friends, and the EMI office. The workshop container EMI shipped to Uganda has arrived and cleared customs with minimal tax charges! Kiira received her passport (finally!) and I've applied for Kiira and Asher's Uganda visas. Please pray for our family as we move back to Uganda: For the flight (35+ hours of travel). For the kids as they transition to a different culture and friends. For our work with EMI, specifically the day-to-day interaction and relationships with the workshop team. For Hannah as she looks at starting to homeschool with Addi and settles into our new home and community. Your prayers make a difference! Thank you!! Blessings,

Jesse, Hannah, Addi, Asher and Kiira
