MISSIONARY UPDATE

RICK & LISA KELLUM
CRU CITY

Dear Alderwood Family,
We've had an emotional Summer and Fall...in mid-August, we said good-bye to our "baby" Mallory (24) as she joined the Cru family in her place of birth: Rennes, France. She is doing ministry on the same campus that we were on for many years.

We call it Gen2Cru! :) We want to thank God for the fruit that remains, not only with the students that we ministered to, but with our own daughter. Speaking of remaining fruit, her team leader is a gal we helped train, and her other teammate is a former student that was a young believer in our ministry years ago! We wear many hats with Cru City, coaching and partnering to help reach the city for Christ. However, one main focus of our ministry is our very own neighborhood. Neighborhood ministry is what we like to call "low and slow", building community and relationships of trust to have spiritual conversations and eventually share the good news of Jesus. One specific couple that we have been journeying with is Chris & Alix who live across the street. It started out with introducing ourselves with a welcome bag when they moved in three years ago and have been sharing life with them ever since. We did pre-marital counseling with them, Rick officiated at their wedding, we have watched the Chosen videos, done the Alpha course and recently we started a Bible study with them. They just welcomed their first child, Lina, and now we are her adopted grandparents. (Lisa was invited to Lina's baby shower and was asked to be in a photo with the other two grandmothers!) We are truly like family. We can't tell you what a joy this journey has been for us! Please pray for Chris & Alix as they take the step to not only fully receive the gift that Jesus offers, but also come to church and join the body of Christ. They are open spiritually and are putting all the pieces together to make it their own faith.

Thank you for your prayers and partnership,

Rick and Lisa
