MISSIONARY UPDATE

LUKE & KELLY LYONS
GLOBAL SURGE, MANILA

Cambodia, "The Kingdom of Wonder." We just held an incredibly encouraging pastors meeting in Cambodia. We brought together Cambodian pastors, church planters and Filipino missionaries! I loved seeing how the Lord gives us glimpses of what Heaven will look like, all nations worshipping Him!

We began by talking about the next 100 years. What will our ministries look like in 100 years? What kind of platform are we building for our grandchildren in the Faith to stand on and build on to reach 3 and 4 generations after us? In 2023 Cambodia celebrated 100 years of Christianity in the Kingdom. I can only imagine what the Lord has in His perfect plan for the next 100 years.

Cambodia has a brighter future than its dark past. It was only 45 years ago when the Khmer Rouge (the Red Army) led by Pol Pot killed millions of his own countrymen. This year we are currently incubating two new churches led by Pastor Adrian and Pastor Walter. Both were led to Christ in our ministry in Manila. They both have heard and answered the call to serve in a foreign country, foreign language, foreign culture and ultimately to serve the One True God.

As you look to your future, continue to pray with me, our family and our team and hundreds of others for the Kingdom of Cambodia. We believe that Cambodia will be the next major sending nation of missionaries reaching other Buddhist nations bringing them to the Light of the Gospel.

Part of my role as missionary is to bring men and women alongside me and let them experience missions in real life. I was able to bring Pastor Roy to Phnom Penh, Cambodia in January. Pastor Roy is an experienced church planter in Manila, Philippines. He's started two churches who have each sent out and launched new church plants as well! If that were not enough, Pastor Roy is already incubating his third church plant and has a vision for even more. Pastor Roy also serves as one of our church planting coaches and contributes so much to the ministry of Global Surge! The Lord's best to you,

Luke, Kelly, Scott, Everett & Virginia
