

Go Tell the World!

Matthew 28:19-20

Before Jesus went up to heaven, he met with the disciples up on a hill. "Go tell everyone the good news that I am alive," he said. "Go tell the world what I have taught you, and let everyone know how they can become saved."

Jesus' words were for us, too. He wants us to share with other people how they can become Christians!

Can you find your way to the different children of the world?

The Great Commission

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV)

Jesus gave the disciples the Great Commission. Jesus calls all believers to this mission of making disciples. The word disciple means “learner” or “student”. The people Jesus called to follow Him during His earthly ministry are called disciples. As believers, we can share the gospel with others and invite them to follow Jesus. Jesus wants people from every nation to know and love Him.
