Sermon questions

1. Read Ephesians 2:10. The words “for us to do” are literally, “in order that we might walk in them.” God has prepared a path of good works for you to do as He works in and through you. What does your “path” look like?
2. Read Philippians 2:5-8. Based on these verses, how would you describe the attitude of Christ that we’re to have? How closely does your attitude match that of Jesus described here?

Read Mark 10:45. What personal application does the phrase, “to give his life as a ransom for many,” have in your life?

3. Read Matthew 20:30-32 and 21:1-3. Since healing these two blind men happened within days of His crucifixion, the upcoming events were likely foremost on Jesus’ mind. Have you ever allowed your schedule to keep you from serving someone the Lord has put in your path? How does Jesus’ example help you recognize opportunities in your daily activities to do what God wants you to do?
4. Read 1 Corinthians 4:1-2. What does it mean to be a faithful servant of Christ with those closest to you? How does one deal with the selfish pettiness that often gets in the way of serving others?
5. Read Ephesians 4:12. What does it mean to “build up” the body of Christ? How do you see yourself doing that?

Read 1 Peter 4:10. How are you using your God-given gifts to serve others in your life (spouse, children, friends, neighbors)?

6. Read Matthew 25:14-30. How were these servants alike and different? How did the master commend the first two?

How do these verses apply to your life as a follower of Jesus looking forward to His return?

7. Pastor Brad talked about the acronym S.H.A.P.E. as a model for considering how we can serve Christ effectively. Thoughtfully answer the following questions:

What do you think your spiritual gifts might be?

If you could do something for the Lord what would it be (Heart)?

What natural abilities do you have?

How would you describe your personality?

What experiences have you had, both good and bad, that the Lord might use?

Often others see us differently than we see ourselves. Share your answers to these questions with your Life Group. Do they affirm what you wrote? Or, do they give you a different perspective on how God is using you, or might want to use you?

Read the Bible this year
