Sermon questions

We're in a series in the book of Romans called Good News where we are studying the many ways that the gospel is good news for everyone. This week, our passage is Romans 3:1-20 , and we learn that the gospel is good news for everyone because we all desperately need it.

Use these questions to discuss the message from Sunday, focusing on how you can ${\bf grow}$ as an everyday follower of Jesus and how you can ${\bf go}$ accomplish what Jesus calls you to do.

1. What is one thing God has taught you so far in our Good News series in Romans?

2. Have someone read Romans 3:1-2. What advantage is there in having God's laws if no one is made righteous through the law?

3.	universally to the human race. How do you resonate with this idea and how do you resist it?
4.	Have someone read vs. 20 . How has God used His law to help you grow in your need for Jesus?
5.	Understanding the reality of our sin is crucial to receiving the Good News of the gospel. How can you go and share this truth in a loving way with those who need to hear it?
