

Going to Do What Jesus Calls Us to Do

Wyatt Martin // September 26, 2021

John 13:1-17; Matthew 22:37-38

Big Idea: We follow Jesus together by going to do what Jesus calls us to do.

Matthew 22:37-38

Go towards others even when the pressure is on.

Go towards others even when it means getting dirty.

Go towards others even when it means laying down your rights.

Go towards others even when they don't deserve it.

Go towards others even when they don't appreciate it.

Go towards others even when you get overlooked.

Go towards others even when you don't feel it.

Sermon questions

We're in a series this month called Following Jesus Together where we're talking about being a church that makes Jesus known by loving others as Jesus has loved us. This week we're talking about "following Jesus together by connecting in Jesus-centered relationships" and our key text is John 13:1-17.

Use these questions to discuss the message from Sunday, focusing on how you can grow as an everyday follower of Jesus and how you can go accomplish what Jesus calls you to do.

1. Wyatt talked about the need for meaning and purpose in life. Can you think of a time when loving a person God has put in your life has provided that?
2. Of the seven examples of how Jesus lived for others from our passage, which was most convicting to you personally.
3. Is there someone in your life right now who is particularly difficult to love? How does Jesus' love towards Judas speak to you in that situation?

4. When it comes to loving others like Jesus has loved you, what is one area you know you need to grow in?
5. Who has God brought into your life right now who doesn't know Jesus? How can you say yes to Jesus' call to go to them and be a witness to the gospel?
