

Unexpected: The Gospel of the Servant King

The Greatest Commandment

Wyatt Martin // December 8, 2019

Mark 12:28-34 (Pages 824-825, 1005, or 1017)

Big Idea: Following Jesus every day is as simple as loving God and loving people.

_____ for God does not define our _____ with God.

But _____ for God always changes _____
_____.

John 13:34 "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

Two Questions for how to treat people:

1. Do I _____ how much Jesus _____ me?

2. How do I _____ this person like Jesus has _____ me?

For Further Study:

During the holidays, while Life Groups take a break, we will include questions for further individual study. Our hope is that these questions will help you deepen your understanding of God's word.

1. Life is all about making decisions and choices. Explain how the two commands in Mark 12:29-31 can guide you in making good decisions and choices.
2. Mark 12:30-31 show both a vertical and horizontal component of how we're to show love. Can you love God without loving people? Can you love people without loving God?
3. How well are you obeying God's commands in Mark 12:30-31? Explain.
4. How will Pastor Wyatt's message help you, as an every day follower of Jesus, to love God and love others?
